Short Term

April 17: UNCA invites you to come to the Glasshouse at 6:30 p.m. and learn about permaculture. UNCA alumni Macon Foscue has been working with the Student Environmental Center and garden manager Brian Sanders to design a permaculture blueprint for the Rhoades Community Garden. Come learn about swales and elderberries, ponds and milpas, herb labyrinths and hugelkultur; and of course, the design system that weaves them all together and sees the garden as a living organism, Permaculture.

April 19: Asheville Earth Day Celebration! RiverLink will have a booth in the Eco-village, so stop by and say hey! Event volunteers are also needed. Contact Malorie Irvin at mpiirving@gmail.com to volunteer.

April 22: Riverlink is celebrating with two different service projects in Ross Creek. From 3:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m., we be applying storm drain stencils and will be doing a creek cleanup. Wear clothes that you don’t mind getting dirty and shoes that you can get wet. To volunteer, email Jess at jess@riverlink.org.
April 26: Riverlink’s Adopt a Stream program will be having clean-up projects in Madison County and along the Swannanoa. If you would like to help out with these clean-ups, email Jess at jess@riverlink.org.

April 26: It is that time of year to start gearing up for our biannual Asheville MS Service Day! Many people living with MS have difficulty completing projects around their homes due to disability or limitations from the MS symptoms they experience. To people living with multiple sclerosis, having assistance with chores that range from changing light bulbs to painting or cleaning out gutters means so much. To volunteer, visit http://nctmain.nationalmssociety.org/site/Survey?ACTION_REQUIRED=URI_ACTION_USER_REQUESTS&SURVEY_ID=70280.

May 3: Riverlink is holding the Save the French Broad River cleanup on Saturday with NOC and Sierra Nevada on May 3 at 10:00 a.m. Meet at the NOC outpost in Walnut, North Carolina. Participants get $15 discount to the French Broad River Festival in Hot Springs. To participate as a RiverLink volunteer, email Jess at jess@riverlink.org.

April 20: Trips for Kids WNC is in need of volunteers to help out at Take a Kid Mountain Biking Day. To register, visit http://www.meetup.com/Pisgah-Area-Mountain-Biking-Asheville-Hendersonville-brevard/events/172432582/.

May 5: The Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive needs volunteers to help letter carriers collect food on their routes, and volunteers to help unload the mail trucks full of food in the evening. If anyone is interested in helping out, contact Lea Brooks at alicia.brooks@uss.salvationarmy.org.

Summer: The Interactive Resource Center (IRC) in Greensboro, NC, seeks empathetic, social justice minded volunteers to serve our guests this summer. The IRC is a day center for folks experiencing homelessness in Greensboro, NC. We offer a range of services for our guests, but we are particularly looking for volunteers to work in our intake, computer lab, and case management departments. For more information about this volunteer opportunity, click here. For more information, about the IRC check out http://gsodaycenter.org/

Spring/Summer: Friends of the Blue Ridge Parkway have several new projects in the works. Check them out:

May 6-8: Pisgah Campground: This has been a signature project for Friends for a number of years. The campground opens on May 9 and Friends will be assisting May 6 through 8 to open the campgrounds. Work will consist of removing winter debris, repairing campsites, and preparing the amphitheater for painting and repair. During the summer two to four volunteers will be needed to assist at the campground. This will begin after Memorial Day and will usually be on Tuesday and Wednesday. Work consists of trash pick-up, fire pit cleaning, replacement of fire pits, trimming, repairing tent sites, etc. Good work and good exercise!

During the Summer: Visitor Center: A large number of native wild flowers were planted in front of the center last fall and now they need to be watered and cared for. Although the time is sporadic (water if a dry spell), the flower beds will need to be weeded during the summer (chic weed and dandelions...no poison ivy, etc.).
June/July: Parkway Mile Markers: This year Friends is planning to repaint the mile markers from mm 364 to 415. The effort will begin in the June/July time frame. The effort will require a steady hand and attention to detail.

April/May: Folk Art Center Interpretive Trail: The Mountain to Sea Trail runs in front of the Folk Art Center then branches off to the east a few hundred yards from the main entrance to the Center. Friends has committed to maintaining the trail and cleaning the interpretative signage along the trail. Effort will begin after the pollen has fallen this year...April/May and again in the fall after the leaves have fallen.

Undetermined: Ditch Cleaning (near Tanbark Tunnel and the infamous "road crack"): Many of you assisted last year to clean a major ditch close to the Tanbark Tunnel area. Repair crews have been busy and working 24/7 to restore the Parkway north so it can again be open to the public for enjoyment. The target opening date is reportedly Memorial Day weekend and if there is a window of opportunity from the finishing of the repair and the Parkway reopening, the Park Service would once again like Friends to assist in cleaning out roughly 1/4 to 1/2 mile of ditch.

Undetermined: Invasive Species: We have a number of invasive species along the Parkway...Bittersweet being but one (and it is tough to get rid of). This project is in planning but Friends will need all hands on deck to make a dent and it will be a multi-year effort. Work will occur when the plants can be identified which could be a year round effort.

Undetermined: Painting the Leaning Parkway Signs: The Park Service has asked Friends for help in scraping and repainting the "leaning signs" at several entrances to the Parkway (191 and 70). An eight to ten foot step ladder will be needed to reach the upper part of the signs. This is a good project for two to three people.

Beginning Now: Cleaning the Commuter Corridor: The Parkway is an economic driver to the success of Western North Carolina. Visitors from around the world come here to enjoy the beauty and to learn how we constructed the Parkway. It is indeed a shame to have litter along the corridor which stretches from the Folk Art Center at highway 70 to the Arboretum at highway 191(mm 382 - mm394). The Park Service has given Friends the permission to offer these miles for adoption which would be great projects for families and civic groups. The only restrictions would be to not park in no parking areas, to wear a reflective safety vest (which can be provided) and to not park right after a rain as tire tracks will be left on the road side. A group will be cleaning the corridor beginning Tuesday and this will be an "as required" project, but whomever adopts a mile (or more) will make the decision on frequency. Keeping the parkway clean of litter also protects the animals as they are drawn to the smells of human food.

For more information on any of these opportunities, or to volunteer, contact Dan Wells at friendsbrp.asheville@yahoo.com.

Undetermined: The Salvation Army’s Center of Hope Shelter needs a few semi-skilled people to assemble dressers for its Women’s Shelter. Tools and equipment will be provided; the only thing needed is hands for assembly. There is no set schedule, it only needs to be completed as soon as possible whenever someone can help. If you are interested in helping, contact Lea Brooks at (828) 253-4723.

Long Term

MANNA is looking for volunteers for the FNS Outreach program. Food and Nutritional Services (FNS), the former Food Stamp Program, needs volunteers for its outreach program to spread the word through the community about eligibility for FNS benefits and helping those who are eligible get signed up. Funding Opportunities
Spencer Foundation New Civics Initiative Grants
Deadline: February 6th (Grants up to $50,000) and April 29, 2014 (Grants up to 350,000)
The foundation is accepting research proposals that ask critical questions about how education can more effectively contribute to the civic development of young people. Of special interest are projects designed to improve understanding of the avenues for and impediments to civic learning and civic action among young people who do not attend college, who reside in marginalized communities, who are recent immigrants or immigrants of different legal statuses, or who are less economically privileged.
