Service

Short Term

September 7: The American Cancer Society is currently in need of volunteers to help at Relay For Life with tent assembly, registration of runners, handing out water to runners, etc. There is a sign-up sheet at the Highsmith Info Desk. Any help would be greatly appreciated by UNCA and by the American Cancer Society. For more information, contact Allison Plitman at aplitman@unca.edu.

September 14: Work day at South Asheville Civil War Cemetery. Work with Warren Wilson College to help clean up a historic piece of Asheville’s history! The workday will be from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. Contact Dr. Ellen Pearson at epearson@unca.edu or Nambi Ndugga at nndugga@unca.edu if interested.

September 21-22: ASAP Farm Tour Weekend: Farm Tour Volunteers get a firsthand look inside their regional local food system by spending a day out on the farm during ASAP’s biggest event of the year! Volunteers will be paired with a participating farm on the tour and will assist that farm from 12-6pm by greeting and registering guests and providing general ASAP information. In exchange for their help, volunteers are invited to pack up a car with friends and family and visit farms for FREE on the afternoon they are not volunteering. Volunteers are required to attend a Farm Tour volunteer orientation conducted at the ASAP Office prior to the tour. The orientation includes logistical information, as well as impacts and history of the tour. Sign up today at asapconnections.org and complete our volunteer interest form.

October 11-13: The Black Mountain College Museum & Arts Center is holding its 5th Annual conference at the Reuters Center. The conference will include panels on poetry, material studies, architecture, graphic design, pedagogy, ceramics, and films. Volunteers will get the opportunity to meet and interact with interdisciplinary and international scholars on the impact of the College on modern craft and design. If you are interested in volunteering, visit us in the Key Center, or contact Erin Dickey directly at erin@blackmountaincollege.org. You can also visit http://www.blackmountaincollege.org for more information on the conference.

October 13: Dig the Du 2013 is a duathlon sponsored by Open Doors of Asheville. Open Doors is an organization that provides at-risks youth with a network of helping hands and resources, working together for the advancement of the youth. Dig the Du is a 2.5 mile run, 12 mile bike, and 2.5 mile run race held on October 13, 2013 at the Sky Valley Farm. Proceeds will go towards the Llewellyn Perry Scholarship Fund. If you are interested in starting a UNCA team, contact Jess-Mara Jordan in the Key Center at jjordan2@unca.edu. Or you can register on your own at http://www.imathlete.com/events/EventDetails.aspx?fEID=16918.

October 22: ABCCM’s Our Circle program needs event coordination volunteers. Tasks include event coordination, scheduling, fundraising, volunteer recruitment, and more. For more information, visit us in the Key Center or contact Julia Dearing at 317-468-5194, or email her at Julia.dearing@abccm.org.

Long Term

The Francine Delany New School for Children is looking for motivated and driven students and/or faculty and staff to teach after school elective classes. Their classes range from Soccer and Basketball to Drawing and Computer Programming. Drama, Art, Music, Keyboarding, and other Sports are just a few of the classes that are in demand, but they are open to anything that may be of interest to middle school students. For more information, come see us in the Key Center or contact Chris Corral at FDNSC directly at chris@fdnsc.net.

The Girl Scouts are providing many opportunities for service learning within walking distance from campus. They need help with communications, social media, events coordination, retail sales & services, Spanish communications, and troops with special populations. For more information, visit us in the Key Center or contact Kristi Brooks at 828-252-4442, or email her at kbrooks@girlscoutsp2p.org.

ABCCM’s Our Circle program needs volunteers! There are many great opportunities available such as childcare and data entry.

Childcare: Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 3:30-6:30. Assist childcare workers in working with children whose parents are attending job readiness programs.

Data Entry: Flexible hours Monday-Thursday 8:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. Enter volunteer hours and other key program information once per week.
For more information, visit us in the Key Center or contact Julia Dearing at 317-468-5194, or email her at Julia.dearing@abccm.org.

Asheville High School is looking for tutors, specifically in Math and Spanish. For more information, contact Hartley Brown at hartley.brown@asheville.k12.nc.us.

Asheville High School needs volunteers to work the concession stand and sell Cougar apparel during football games. Visit the website to see the game schedule http://www.usatodayhss.com/team/asheville-high-school-asheville-nc/boys-varsity-football. Asheville Middle School is looking for Assistant Coaches for Girls on Track, a girls empowerment program that incorporates running activities to train for a 5K in December. You do not have to be a runner to coach- the program provides you with specific curriculum guidelines to discuss and process struggles that elementary & middle school girls face (eating disorders, relationships, cyber bullying, healthy choices, etc). The Girls on Track program at Asheville Middle School meets on Mondays and Wednesdays 3:30 p.m.-5:00 p.m., starting September 9th. As an Asst. Coach, you would be providing support when one of the Head Coaches is not able to make it (and you can support any other time, if you’d like!) Register at http://www.gotrwnc.org/get-involved/coach or contact Lindsay Kazi at lindsay.kazi@asheville.k12.nc.us.

Alternative Service Experience

Alternative Spring Break is a program that brings together a community of people who dedicate their University breaks to enact positive social change in the world, participate in experiential education and explore new communities. Groups work with a variety of community partners on a host of community initiatives that address hunger, poverty, environmental preservation, women's empowerment, and many, many more.

Apply now to lead a program! Peer Leaders are responsible for planning all aspects of the program and receive 1 credit hour for a leadership development course! Peer Leaders must complete the application and interview process. Applications for ASE: Spring Break 2014 are due on Friday, September 6, 2013. Download the application at http://keycenter.unca.edu/community-engaged-scholars.
