Service

Short Term
October 22-25: Think Before You Drink needs student volunteers to help with the event. Jobs include talking with students about responsible decisions related to alcohol use and handing out R.A.D. at UNC Asheville wrist bands (R.A.D.= Responsible Alcohol Decisions) and helping with one of the events. For more information, email Barbara Galloway at bgallowa@unca.edu.

October 28: Riverlink needs volunteers to help provide the Town of Woodfin information for a new riverside park.

November 9: Asheville Green Works needs volunteers to help clean up the largest tire dump in Western NC. Duties will include hauling tires out of the river, installing fence, and planting native trees to help restore the riverbank. Waders and canoes will be provided to those who will be working in the river. Those on land duty will need to dress in layers, boots, long sleeve shirts, and long pants. Expect rough working conditions. Must be 18 to participate and have up-to-date tetanus shots. Also need to be able to lift 50 lbs and swim. To volunteer, email Eric at eric@ashevillegreenworks.org.

Long Term
Brandi Nichole Family Enrichment Center is a therapeutic foster care agency for families who have children with mental illness. Student volunteers will have the opportunity to help out with creative projects, administrative duties, assisting with layout and text edits, photo retouching, file management, and website maintenance. They will be able to have hands on experience using the techniques and training they have learned in their graphic design or communication classes. They will also be able to learn about the foster care system and human service field. The student will have some flexibility to introduce their own design that may be used for marketing and distribution. They can use this experience on their resume and the marketing work in their portfolio. The student will be haven a unique opportunity this early in their career to design something that will be used and seen by many. They would have to understand the targeted audience and design material that will be appealing to that demographic. For more information visit http://www.brandinichole.org/ or email Charlene at charlene@brandinichole.org.

Project Rise is a YMCA tutoring and mentoring program that serves grades 4 and 5 at Oakley, Sand-Hill Venable, and W.D. Williams Elementary Schools, and grades 5 and 6 at Eblen Elementary School. The program runs from 2:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. during which time there will be multiple activities regarding development, tutoring, and enrichment. For more information, and to receive the volunteer packet, email Caroline Jackovich at caroline.jackovich@gmail.com.

21 Century is a YMCA tutoring program that serves grades 6 through 8 at Owen, Erwin, Enka, and Reynolds Middle Schools. The program runs from 3:30 p.m. until 5:30 p.m. during which time volunteers participate in tutoring and enrichment programs. For more information, and to receive the volunteer packet, email Caroline Jackovich at caroline.jackovich@gmail.com.

Clare Bridge of Asheville is a Brookdale Senior Living community which provides assisted living and memory care to residents who have been diagnosed with dementia. Students who wish to volunteer will be involved with recreation therapy for residents. Students will help engage residents in a variety of activities including intellectual, emotional, physical, and spiritual engagement. This provides service-learning opportunities for planning and problem-solving, and gaining an understanding of how people with dementia can maximize their remaining physical and mental abilities. Students who are interested will need to attend a four-hour orientation course which will provide an overview of dementia and how to effectively engage memory-care residents. Students will work under the supervision of the community program director. Volunteers are needed Monday-Friday from 10:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. For more information, visit the website at http://www.brookdaleseniorliving.com, or contact Craig D. Andrews at (828) 687-0155, or email him at candrews@brookdaleliving.com.

William Randolph, the alternative program of Asheville Middle and Asheville High School, is currently seeking volunteers to support their at-risk student population. There are many opportunities, including, but not limited to: mentoring and/or tutoring students in grades 6-12, assisting in classrooms, and leading enrichment activities. If you would like to get involved and help make a difference for these students, contact Carlye Gates at (828) 350-6932 or email her at carlye@acsf.org.

Emma Elementary needs volunteers to help distribute Manna food bags for students that need them. This happens every Friday from 12:30 p.m.-2:00 p.m. Students will need to meet at Emma Elementary at 12:30 p.m. and be walked through the process. Manna has already provided the food; volunteers only need to distribute it to the right class. If you are interested in helping, contact Carol Murray at (828) 232-4272 or email her at cmurray89@gmail.com

The Francine Delany New School for Children is looking for motivated and driven students and/or faculty and staff to teach after school elective classes. Their classes range from Soccer and Basketball to Drawing and Computer Programming. Drama, Art, Music, Keyboarding, and other sports are just a few of the classes that are in demand, but they are open to anything that may be of interest to middle school students. Classes happen on Fridays from 12:15 p.m. – 1:15 p.m., 1:20 p.m. – 2:20 p.m., or 12:15 p.m. – 2:20 p.m. For more information, come see us in the Key Center or contact Chris Corral at FDNSC directly at chris@fdnsc.net.

Visit the website to see the game schedule http://www.usatodayhss.com/team/asheville-high-school-asheville-nc/boys-varsity-football. For more information, contact Hartley Brown at hartley.brown@asheville.k12.nc.us.

Asheville Middle School is looking for Assistant Coaches for Girls on Track, a girls empowerment program that incorporates running activities to train for a 5K in December. You do not have to be a runner to coach - the program provides you with specific curriculum guidelines to discuss and process struggles that elementary & middle school girls face (eating disorders, relationships, cyber bullying, healthy choices, etc). The Girls on Track program at Asheville Middle School meets on Mondays and Wednesdays 3:30 p.m.-5:00 p.m., starting September 9th. As an Asst. Coach, you would be providing support when one of the Head Coaches is not able to make it (and you can support any other time, if you’d like!) Register at http://www.gotrwnc.org/get-involved/coach or contact Lindsay Kazi at lindsay.kazi@asheville.k12.nc.us.

NC Cooperative Extension Service partners with communities to deliver education and technology that enrich the lives, land and economy of North Carolinians. Delivering timely, unbiased, and relevant educational programs that meet critical local needs in the areas of agriculture, family and consumer sciences, 4-H/youth and community development is the cornerstone of Cooperative Extension's mission. Throughout the year there are multiple opportunities to assist with community programs, agricultural field demonstrations and research projects. Programs are based upon pressing community needs and are therefore dynamic and ongoing. Cooperative Extension is a strategic community partner, allowing students to work with a diverse clientele. Program areas include sustainable agriculture, food systems, family and consumer sciences, 4-H/youth and community development and are based upon relevant needs of the citizens of Buncombe County that may also address larger, regional issues. For more information on how to get involved, contact Meghan Baker at (828) 255-5522 or email her at meghan_baker@ncsu.edu.

Mountain Area Volunteer Lawyers Program has an internship opportunity. The MAVL Intern will assist in the implementation of the Mountain Area Volunteer Lawyers program of Pisgah Legal Services. In this program over 300 volunteer attorneys agree to represent low income clients in pursuing protection from domestic violence, accessing safe housing, securing medical care and meeting other basic needs on a pro bono basis. The MAVL Intern will follow up with attorneys to whom cases have been referred to ensure that clients have contacted them and the case is proceeding. MAVL Intern may assist with contacting clients and coordinating clinics and consultation programs. Learning opportunity: will learn about complex workings of nonprofit law firm, will learn about many different issues that arise in a civil case and be exposed to challenges facing people living in poverty. Volunteer requirements: available at least 3 hours per week for a semester, ability to communicate well with clients and professionals, willingness to learn to use PLS’ case management software. Contact Sam Galloway at (828) 210-3425 or email him at sam@pisgahlegal.org for more information.

Wesley Fellowship is partnering with First Baptist Church for their tutoring program for at-risk elementary school students on Wednesdays. If you are interested in tutoring every Wednesday from 3:00 p.m.-4:30 p.m., please contact Clarissa Fuentes at cfuentes@unca.edu prior to Tuesday, September 17 to get into the volunteer training session on Wednesday, September 18.

MLK Day of Service
Want to participate in MLK Day of Service but want to serve where you want? This year we are giving you that option. Sign up next week at our Quad Sign Up Days. We will have a table on October 29 and 30 from 11:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. to answer all of your questions about Day of Service and get you signed up. There will also be some giveaways and Autumn-themed baked goods. For more information, contact Jess-Mara at jjordan2@unca.edu.
